

O Lord today and every day, according to the measure of Your infinite mercy and grace:

May Your hedge of protection be around us, the blood of Yeshua (Jesus) be over us, the whole armour of God be upon us and as our days, so shall our strength be.

Please cleanse us from any sin, unrighteousness, iniquity, idolatry, deception, or denial.

I pray that no weapon formed against us shall prosper or succeed, no witchcraft, no curses, no judgments, no evil speaking, no demonic assignment, and no 'snare of the fowler'.

Please protect us today from confusion, harassment, and division.

Protect us from spiritual, mental, emotional, or physical fatigue, injury or illness.

I pray that no evil or unwise counsel of the world, the flesh, or the devil will prevail against us.

Thank You for protecting us today spiritually, mentally, physically, emotionally, in our finances, and our relationships.

May Your Holy Spirit, holy Word, and holy angels be released to us to help us walk humbly with You in faith, hope, love, holiness, justice, wisdom, and the fear of the Lord. Amen

From Shifting Nations Through Houses of Prayer by Rick & Patricia Ridings